CONTINUED EXAMINATION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's IDS filed on June 21, 2005 has been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: Claims 11-20 have been cancelled.

3. Claims 11-20 were drawn to a non-elected invention. Since product claims 1-10 and 21-25 are considered allowable, the claims to the non-elected invention have been cancelled (see M.P.E.P. 821.02).

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach a plastic container, which is capable of resisting permanent deformation when used in a hot fill or retort process, having a lower frustum with a larger volume than the upper frustum and an upper rim defining an opening as large as the widest diameter of the container.

The prior art containers of Nosella (U.S. D438,116), Rhodes (U.S. D379,589), Fullerton et al. (U.S. D16,389) and Bezek et al. (U.S. D447,418 S) are similar to the claimed invention because they show a container with a lower frustum having a larger volume than the upper frustum, however, none of these reference teach an opening which is as large as the widest diameter of the container. These references are also silent as to the deformation resistance and, in some cases, the material of the container.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

5. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Technology Center 3700 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly to (703)872-9306. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a USPTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.
